

Chedid boss says expansion due to "ambition"

<http://www.arabianbusiness.com/banking-finance/395445-chedid-boss-says-expansion-due-to-ambition>

Brand View: Group has expanded from just 3 employees 19 years ago

Chedid Capital Holdings chairman Farid Chedid

Chedid Capital Holdings chairman Farid Chedid says the company's remarkable growth is due to "integrity, passion and ambition."

In a message posted on the company's website, the chairman and Group CEO said: "Nineteen years ago, we were three employees working relentlessly in a single office space. But today, it brings me great pride to describe our growth as an investment group that specializes in insurance, reinsurance, corporate solutions and management services with operations running across three continents."

He added: "Our growth and expansion throughout the years has been the direct result of our integrity, passion, and ambition. This coupled with our consistent delivery of quality services and solutions has led to prosperous partnerships with renowned and leading financial institutions, including Chedid Re's exceptional achievement as a registered Lloyd's Broker."

The group now comprises five companies including Chedid RE, Chedid Insurance Brokers, Chedid Corporate Solutions, Al Manarah Insurance Services, La Nationale and City Brokers.

In his message, he added: "Our success at Chedid Capital Holding would not be possible without three indispensable pillars: our people, our vision and our dedication to delivering on our promises. With an adaptable approach, a solution-oriented mentality and a young, ambitious and vibrant team, we are ready to meet the demands of tomorrow."